

CONTENTS

Introduction: Globalization and Post-Apartheid South Africa Abebe Zegeye	1
Chapter 1 Globalization, Global History, and Africa Tilman Dederig	7
Chapter 2 Six Years of Neoliberal Socioeconomic Policies in South Africa Ishmael Lesufi	22
Chapter 3 Loyal Service and Yet “Demobbed”—What Now? Demobilization and Economic Reintegration of South Africa’s Demobilized Military Personnel Ian Liebenberg, Rialize Ferreira, and Marlene Roefs	35
Chapter 4 New Methods, New Motives? Appraising Police Behavioral Change in a Post-Apartheid Police Unit Monique Marks	54
Chapter 5 Environmental Entitlements and the Rural Poor in South Africa Julia Maxted	89
Chapter 6 Reproductive Dynamics in the Context of Domestic Violence and Economic Insecurity: Findings of a South African Case Study Kammila Naidoo	112
Chapter 7 The Farce of Homeland Independence: Kwa-Ndebele, The Untold Story Stephens Ntsoakae Phatlane	137
Chapter 8 Conclusion: Globalization, Neoliberalism, and Post-Apartheid South Africa Richard L. Harris and Pat Lauderdale	158
About the Authors	172
Index	174